Located in this unique backwater set in the heart of Harrogate, Devonshire Lane is close to the famous Stray and within walking distance of the town centre which offers a fine selection of shops, bars and restaurants, along with its many beautiful parklands.

Harrogate is ideally located for easy access to major roads and rail networks, making commuting across the country accessible, with the Yorkshire Dales and many charming market towns on its doorstep.

The courtyard incorporates many original features and comprises six cottages, a ground floor and first floor apartment. Separate private gates lead to Swincliffe Mews, where there are six individual stone houses with unique features and a further pair of semi-detached homes fronting onto Claro Road.

All homes have private parking and outdoor space.
